

Journalism #3

What Ya Know

Write the word that matches the correct definitions. All words are used only once.

1. _____ A story a reporter has been given to research and write.
2. _____ A specialty area of coverage.
3. _____ A list of stories planned for the next edition.
4. _____ The number of papers sold.
5. _____ Stories or articles written by reporters and editors.
6. _____ Someone who edits copy, checking for spelling, grammar, typographical, and factual errors.
7. _____ Making the story shorter.
8. _____ The information between the byline and the story that identifies where a story originates.
9. _____ This person is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the paper.
10. _____ A short item that is used to take up space when a story doesn't fit an entire column or page.
11. _____ A reporter who does not have a beat or specialty.
12. _____ The part of a story that continues onto another page.
13. _____ The chief executive of the paper.
14. _____ Pronounced as "reefers", they appear on Page 1 and tell the readers about stories inside the paper.
15. _____ A short story related to the main story and run adjacent to it. It develops one angle of the main story.
16. _____ The biggest headline on the front page, sometimes called the banner.
17. _____ Short for typographical error.
18. _____ Organizations that collect news from around the world and distribute it to subscribing newspapers.
19. _____ Lists the top management of the paper. It may list the entire staff.

Word Bank

Assignment	Beat	Budget	Circulation	Copy
Copy Editor	Cut	Dateline	Editor	Filler
Jump	Masthead	Publisher	Refers	Sidebar
Top line	Typo	Wires	General Assignment Reporter	